SENATOR HARTNETT: I think we have another amendment to this one. Mr. Clerk. Clerk would like to read some titles of some bills.

CLERK: Mr. President, thank you. (Read LBs 330-344 by title for the first time. See pages 237-40 of the Legislative Journal.) Mr. President, new constitutional amendment. (Read brief summary of LR 45. See pages 240-48 of the Legislative Journal.) And last, Mr. President, Reference Report referring LBs 134 through LR 35.

SENATOR CROSBY PRESIDING

CLERK: Madam President, the next motion I have, with respect to rules amendment number 5, is by Senator Wickersham, Will, Chambers, and Matzke. (See page 250 of the Legislative Journal.)

SENATOR CROSBY: Senator Will.

SENATOR WILL: Yeah. Mr. Clerk, do we need to formally withdraw the underlying amendment as advanced by the Rules Committee?

CLERK: All amendment 5, Senator? I believe you want to if you want to consider this as an alternative.

SENATOR WILL: Okay, let's do that, with Senator Wickersham's agreement. Bring up the Wickersham amendment. And, Senator Wickersham, I would yield to you.

SENATOR CROSBY: Senator Wickersham.

SENATOR WICKERSHAM: Thank you, Madam President. The amendment is in front of you on the desk, it incorporates, I believe, Senator Landis' idea from the discussion this morning. And to your relief and my relief I'll yield the rest of my time so he can explain the amendment.
